ELLIOTT'S DECISION.

Supreme Court Renders the Decision Asked for by Cooper

Limitations on Appropriations Fixed by Constitution.

Expenses of Departments of State to be Given Preference.

The Course to be Pursued if Limit is Exceeded Not Stated.

The Appropriations Decision

DENVER, October 25.—Justice Elliott of the supreme court, this morning handed down a decision on the question of the appropriations made by the Seventh general assembly as to the limit as fixed by the state constitution, which decision is given upon a request recently made by Governor Cooper. The decision concludes as follows:

In view of the examination we have given the subject, we are of the opinion that the acts of the general assembly making the necessary appropriations to defray the expenses of the executive, legislative and judicial departments of the state government for each fiscal year including the interest on any valid public debt are entitled to preference over all other appropriations from the general public revenue of the state without reference to the date of their passage and irrespective of the emergency clause. We do not mean that such appropriations are valid if they exceed the limit prescribed by law, nor have we considered what item or items would be entitled to the preference in case such appropriations in the aggregate should be in excess of such constitutional limit. Such a question is not presented in the case before us, and we trust such a contingency may never occur.

The public school fund of the state is inviolate. It is protected from all invasion by sundry constitutional safeguards and therefore is not included within the purview of this opinion. Appropriations other than those necessary to defray the expenses of the state government and to pay the interest on the public debt and being such as are proper to foster and maintain the public institutions and public improvements may be made by the general assembly to the extent of the surplus over and above the amount required for the necessary appropriations aforesaid, provided always that the aggregate of such appropriations when added to the necessary appropriations aforesaid do not exceed the limits prescribed by the constitution. In case such appropriations overrun the constitutional limit the question of preference between the conflicting claimants would almost necessarily involve important private and corporate rights and therefore it should not be decided in an opinion like this, but should be left for adjudication in the ordinary course of judicial proceedings.

We do not deem it proper to further extend this opinion. In answering the interrogatories submitted so far as we have felt at liberty to go we have endeavored to be specific and guarded in our language; specific so as not to be misunderstood; guarded, lest being enabled by the vigilance of contending counsel [illegible] provisions of the constitution or law might be overlooked and erroneous conclusions reached.

A Horrible [illegible]

BALTIMORE, October 25.—Carl Graves, fireman, and Ludwig Lester, [illegible]man, survivors of the crew of the steamship Ea[illegible], told last night a story horrible in details of the way they sustained life by cannibalism for days. Lester said: "The only food we had for the first fifteen days in the boat was a flying fish and a few raw, small sea birds divided among the eleven persons. On the sixteenth day William Davis, [illegible] an[illegible] caught me by the throat and made a dash at my head with a knife. He cut me on the right cheek, a scar from which still remains as you see. He was told to kill me by August Plagee, a fireman. When Davis began to cut me some of my companions caught him, but others shouted 'kill him' kill him' we want something to eat; we are starving.' Plagee, Davis and others in one end of the boat decided I should die, as I suppose, being pretty fat, I looked inviting.

"Plagee was placed on watch that night but he was missing next morning. No one saw him go overboard. On the seventeenth day Wm Robl[illegible] lay down to sleep. When they tried to call him they found him dead. It was determined to eat his flesh and Wm Wright, the cook, was ordered to carve the body. The first thing done was to smash in Robinson's skull and from the fracture each one sucked blood as long as it would last, which was but a little while. Then the cook stripped the flesh from the ribs. Next day this flesh in strips was placed on top of the water tight compartments and dried in the sun. After taking out Robinson's liver, heart and other parts which would furnish blood to be sucked, they threw the mutilated body in the sea. Two days after Robinson's death the third engineer, Thomas Hunt, died. His body was also cut up for food. In about three days the limbs and arms of all began to swell and several broke out in ugly sores. We thought it poison from the human flesh and blood."

Both Graves and Lester say they have no recollection of the taste of human flesh, so great was their mental anguish at the time. Their only recollection of taking food is feeling their own blood quicken as it coursed through their veins.

One [illegible]

MONTREAL, October 25.—So far only one death is known to have resulted from yesterday's explosion although it was rumored in the vicinity that two other men had been blown to pieces. Up to noon six, however, are known to be more or less seriously injured and of this number several may die.

Said to Have Con[illegible]

WINNIPEG, October 25.—The police have notified the Chicago authorities that Martin Burke while in jail at Winnipeg, according to the stories of two prisoners confessed to them the details of the Cronin murder. The police do not place much reliance in the stories.

Thurman's Strength Fails.

CINCINNATI, October 25.—Judge Allen G. Thurman did not complete his speech at the Music hall last night but was compelled on account of a failure of his strength to stop suddenly. He was taken to his hotel room as soon as he was able to leave the hall.

Union Pacific Earnings.

BOSTON, October 25.—The preliminary statement of the Union Pacific for the whole system for September shows an increase over the same period last year of $292,000 in the net earnings. For the nine months to September 30 the net earnings showed an increase of $703,000.

Town Partially Destroyed.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., October 25.—Much of the business portion of Port Leyden was destroyed by fire this morning. The Douglass house, opera house, eight stores, postoffice and several dwellings were destroyed. Fifteen families lost their homes and much of their possessions. The loss is $100,000.

The Wrecked St[illegible]

BALTIMORE, October 25.—Patterson, Ramsay & Co., the agents of the steamer Baltimore which is ashore at Cape Henry, says she is valued at $250,000 and is insured. The cargo consisted of dry goods, earthenware, tin, copper ore and soda. The sea is running high and it is doubtful if tugs can be got near enough to receive the cargo which is being thrown overboard.

Wash[illegible] Mills [illegible]

MINNEAPOLIS, October 25.—It is asserted that the great Washburn flouring mills have been sold to a New York syndicate. A part of the stock will be sold in England. The transfer is to be made next September. Washburn admits that a deal is pending. Reports from London state that the deal for the sale of the Pillsbury mill has fallen through.

The Barton[illegible] Case

DENVER, October 25.—The supreme court met this morning and the first decision given was in the Barton Londoner mayoralty contest case, the case being sent back to the district court of Arapahoe county for trial. Some months ago Judge Allen decided he had no jurisdiction in the case and an appeal was taken to the supreme court with the above result. This is considered a victory for Barton, the democratic candidate.

Work of Train Wr[illegible]

INDIANAPOLIS, October 25.—A freight train on the Lake Erie and Western railroad was wrecked at Kokomo early this morning by an obstruction placed on the switch by train wreckers. Twelve oil tanks exploded in quick succession, setting fire to and burning a number of cars. Engineer Mehl, Fireman Burnett and Head Brakeman Shellman were thrown beneath the tanks and burned to a crisp. This has been the third attempt at train wrecking in this vicinity within the last two months.

A Valuable Invention.

WASHINGTON, October 25.—A new automatic appliance has been perfected as an attachment to boilers of naval vessels by which it is said a decided increase in their steam generating capacity can be secured and it is hoped our war cruisers by its use may be made to show greater s[illegible]. It is understood that the works at San Francisco have decided to have the invention applied to the boilers of the San Francisco which is now under construction by them and probably also to the boilers of the Charleston, which in her official trials proved to be deficient in horse power to the extent of calling for about $20,000 penalty against the builders.

Steamship I[illegible]ion

WASHINGTON, October 25.—Inspector General Dumont of the steamboat inspection service in his report to the secretary of the treasury of the operations of the service during the fiscal year ended June 30 last, shows that 6,725 steamers have been inspected, the tonnage of which was 1,315,406. Compared with the previous year this shows an increase of 300 vessels and 80,301 net tonnage. Twenty thousand and eighty eight is the number of officers licensed on foreign steam vessels which were inspected. The total number of accidents during the year was 232, thirty two of which resulted in loss of life. The total number of lives lost was 231 or 81 more than last year. During the fifteen years beginning '75 and ending with the present year, the number of steam vessels in the United States has increased from 3,885 to 6,725, a gain of 73 per cent. He recommends that vessels using naphtha as a motive power be brought under the rules compelling the use of licensed engineers or pilots.

Davitt Before the Commission

LONDON, October 25.—Michael Davitt resumed his address before the Parnell commission to-day. He said that the landlord system in Ireland should be abolished and the land vested in the state. Eight tenths of the money which came from America for the support of the Irish cause he declared came from Irish working men and working women.

Davitt continuing said that Houston, secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic league and his accomplices knew that the letters alleged to have been written by Parnell which were printed in the London Times were forgeries before Pigott took the witness stand as that it had come to his (Davitt's) knowledge that Pigott confessed the fact prior to his testifying for the Times. On being interrupted by Chief Justice Hannen who said that the commission would not accept the statement without evidence, Davitt replied that the allegation would be again made and proven later on.

TAKING EVIDENCE.

Testimony Given by Witnesses in the Cronin Murder Case.

The Identity of the Body Found in Catch Basin Fixed.

The Preliminary Hearing in the Bowman Shooting Affair.

Chambers Held Without Bail for the Grand Jury's Action.

Taking Evidence

CHICAGO, October 25.—The taking of evidence of identification was resumed in the Cronin case this morning. The identification was very perfect and very positive. The next matter taken up was the finding of the body in the catch basin by two sewer cleaners who notified the police of the fact and the policemen who were sent out and assisted in removing the body were sworn as to this point and described the position of the body. Lawyer Forrest, for the defense, made a cross examination on this point very rigidly.

Then followed Dr Lewis the dentist, who made a set of false teeth for Cronin. He identified the plate taken from Cronin's mouth as the one he made. He said the cast for another set exactly fitted the dead man's mouth.

At the afternoon session Dr Egbert stated the facts revealed by the autopsy, describing the wounds at great length and giving it as his opinion that death had resulted from them. All the wounds were on the head, but the skull was not broken, except that a small piece of bone was chipped off at the corner of the left eye. The stomach and some of the contents were exhibited and Dr Egbert said Cronin was killed within three hours after having eaten. The cross examination of Dr. Egbert developed the fact that none of the wounds were such as would necessarily cause death. It was impossible, he admitted, to say whether the wounds were inflicted before or after death. If death had resulted from the skull wounds it would in all probability have been caused by concussion of the brain. The question was put to the doctor: "Is it not scientifically true that the physicians found no evidences in the body that were certain and conclusive of the cause of death?" Dr Egbert replied: "That is true." He was of the opinion that death had occurred through excessive loss of blood, but there was no certainty of it he said. Dr. Perkins, who assisted at the post mortem, thought death resulted from concussion of the brain. That organ, however, was too much decomposed to afford any information.

Pleading Self [illegible]

ST LOUIS, October 25.—In the preliminary examination of Chambers for killing Bowman to-day two witnesses testified that Bowman made a motion as if to draw a pistol before Chambers fired the fatal shot.

The event of the day was the testimony of the murderer Chambers. He said that Bowman and Garrett first came to the house and Bowman whispered to him (Chambers) that he must have $1,300. "But I haven't got it," returned Chambers. "Then I must levy on everything in sight," said Bowman. Chambers said he knew if Bowman once entered the house he would have no regard for the rights or feelings of any. He (Chambers) then brought out a gun with the intention of frightening Bowman off the place. After ordering Garrett away he told Bowman he would give him three minutes to get off but he did not move. "He didn't move a muscle," said Chambers, "then I saw him make a motion with his hand and it occurred to me if I did not shoot him he would shoot me. I thought of the Terry Field Nagle affair, and the quickness with which a man could draw a pistol and shoot. My finger was on the trigger, I pulled it and Bowman fell."

The prosecution cross-examined Chambers so closely in regard to his financial dealings with Bowman that he lost his temper and the spectators were treated to quite a sensation. "You were afraid Bowman would kill you?" asked the prosecutor. "Yes," replied Chambers. "Why?" "Because he would do anything. He was the damnedest scoundrel I ever knew." As he said this Chambers leaned forward in his chair and his face became livid with rage. "Yes, Sir," he shouted hoarsely, "never such a damned scoundrel as Bowman lived and I rejoice that I killed him." Chambers was held without bail to await the action of the grand jury.

Considering Resolut[illegible]

DENVER, October 25.—The locomotive engineers to-day began the consideration of various resolutions presented to the convention. They are forty in number, the most important of which is one favoring federation and one offering an amendment to the constitution cutting down the number of delegates to the national convention. The latter will be heartily supported by Chief Arthur who declares that the large number of delegates now allowed make the convention unwieldy. Only two resolutions were adopted to-day, one endorsing the report of the committee on insurance and one fixing the time of the election of officers for Monday.

"At this rate," said one of the delegates to-day, "the convention will last longer than the 'Q' strike." The delegates will leave here to-morrow morning by special Rio Grande train for a trip through the Grand canon and [illegible] Sunday at midnight. A grand banquet will be given them to-morrow night at Pueblo.

NEW ORLEANS, October 25.—The Times Democrat's Brownsville, Texas, special says: Sheriffs Brite and Dougherty and their deputies, and Captain Brooks and his company of Rangers made a raid yesterday morning on the Arguellas Ranch in Hidalgo county and county and captured thirteen bad characters. General Lojero sent up from Matamoras the Third cavalry under Colonel Prajelis Cleeres and the Fifth cavalry commanded by Colonel Nieves Hernandez came down from Arizonas to aid the American authorities.

Valuable Papers Missing

CHICAGO, October 25.—It is announced this evening that important papers are missing from the state's attorney's office upon which the county was largely dependent to combat the old "boodle" claims, aggregating $270,000. The documents are supposed to have been stolen. They are needed chiefly to fight the bills of Contractor Kilting, ex Warden Varnell, ex Commissioner Frey and the American Stove and Brick Preserving company. The last named claimant is now represented by Lawyer Forthmann who was assistant state's attorney when the papers were turned over to the present incumbent of the state's attorney's office, Mr Longenecker. There is no clue as to how the papers disappeared. It is said that unless the missing documents are recovered it may result in a loss of many thousands of dollars to the county.

Captured the Town.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., October 25.—A dispatch from Pineville says that the forces of Wilson Howard, the outlaw, worked a neat flank movement on the forces of County Judge Lewis yesterday. The latter party left the court house to make an early assault on Howard's camp. Howard's forces moved around to the flank, got into town, took possession of the court house and are holding the town. Judge Lewis and party are camped outside and it is expected will make an effort to recapture the town, when a bloody battle is expected.

LATER.—The report to-night says that the outlaws did not capture the court house and that Judge Lewis is gaining recruits.

CHICAGO, October 25.—Chairman Walker of the inter state commerce railway association to-day sent out the following notice: Reductions having been made by the Boston and Colorado Smelting company of Denver, Colorado that the decision in the above entitled matter dated October 7th, 1889, affects said and other companies unjustly, notice is given that the entire question in respect to rates upon the commodity referred to in said decision will be reopened and a further hearing will be had at Chicago on November 13th, 1889, at 10 a. m., at which time an opportunity will be given to all parties in interest to present their claims. The operation of the rate authorized by said decision is meanwhile suspended with the consent of the Union Pacific Railway company.

Will be Driven Off

PIERRE, S. D., October 25.—From private advices two or three hundred squatters at Ft. Pierre across the river from here have learned that the government intends to drive them off before the opening of the reservation, and the land on which they have been located will be taken by the Northwestern railway for railroad purposes.

Three German families, who came from Paris, Ill., have been found by the Indian police in a starving condition. One death has occurred and others are anticipated.

ST LOUIS, October 25.—A local sporting paper asserts that the League and Association will probably be consolidated into one organization of ten or twelve clubs the unprofitable cities to be dropped. Each club will contribute a large sum toward a guarantee fund to be used by the new association in fighting the brotherhood league should there be one in existence next year. The paper claims to have the information from a reliable source.

K[illegible]ing Down the Surplus

WASHINGTON, October 25.—Now that the sinking fund requirements of the present fiscal year have been met by the purchase of bonds to date, the sole purchases of future bonds will be to [illegible] an undue increase in the surplus, which now amounts to $46,315,000. The receipts so far this month aggregate nearly $27,000,000 and the expenditures nearly $17,000,000, making a net gain of $10,000,000 for the month.

Cabinet Meeting Topics

WASHINGTON, October 25.—It is said that the principal topic of discussion at to-day's cabinet meeting was the method of treating the leading issues of the day in the forthcoming reports to congress. Secretary Windom remained after the meeting and took luncheon with the president, which fact gave rise to the report that the tariff and financial policies of the administration were under consideration.

The Clan na Gael must go. It seems to be determined to interfere with free speech. Because ex-Mayor Ames of Minneapolis chanced to speak of "priest ridden Ireland," the Irish people of Minneapolis have sent him threatening letters. Tammany requested all democrats to unite in nominating a legislative ticket so that they might make the most of their opportunity to carry the legislature and elect a democratic ... or to Senator Evarts. The county democracy replied by demanding half of the number on the ticket. To this Tammany objected, on the ground that the county democracy did not cast half the democratic vote and should not have representation except in proportion to the vote it cast. This certainly seems fair. Tammany, accordingly, rejected the county democracy's proposition and nominated a straight ticket, all the names of which are particularly offensive to the county democracy. This shows that David B. Hill has not so strong a hold on the organization in New York city as has been supposed. He was very anxious for peace this fall but his advice has been declined.

As was noticed in our local columns yesterday, the Reading Room association gave up the rooms which they had rented over Barnard's grocery store on Tejon street and have taken three rooms on the ground floor of the new brick building erected by the Western Building and Supply company on Nevada ... south of the court house. The change is a very judicious one. The new rooms are sufficiently central for a reading room and have the advantage of being on the first floor so that invalids can easily get to them. They are in a new building and therefore will be fresh and clean. The rooms are on the south side of the building and will have plenty of sun and light. Those in charge of the ... in doing this, though paying a very low rent, have exceeded the amount set aside for this purpose. There is need, therefore, of greater liberality on the part of those interested in this institution. The rent paid for the ... has been simply a nominal one and no other quarters equally central on the first floor on Tejon street could be obtained for less than six or eight times what they are now paying. It was for this reason that the rooms over Barnard's grocery store were rented. But on reflection, it was found that rooms up stairs would probably be used much less and the usefulness of the institution would be considerably impaired. Few really appreciate the amount of good this institution is doing in this city. It has demonstrated that there is a need for something of the kind and that the reading room fairly meets the demand. In the new quarters it is hoped that the institution will assume more of a permanent character, and that a much larger class of people will go to enjoy its benefits. Our readers, in disposing of their periodicals, should remember it.

Dun's Review of Trade.

NEW YORK, October 25.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: The money market has become more easy with the prospect that a serious disturbance this season is no longer to be apprehended. The banks are running with narrow reserves and an artificial stringency may at any time be engineered, but the movement of crops has been heavy and in the natural course of events the return of money to this centre should soon begin and the possibility of a foreign decline seems more remote. The Bank of England gained last week $1,270,000, and the Bank of France $230,000 in gold. Securities do not appear to be moving largely either way, while merchandise exports for three weeks show a gain of 14 per cent over last year, against a gain of 10 per cent in imports. The rate of foreign exchange has accordingly declined.

There is a little more stringency at Omaha, less at Cleveland and an active demand with a conservative tone at Chicago, but otherwise the markets west and south all report supplies adequate for legitimate needs. Collections are unusually satisfactory at ... all points, though Milwaukee notes some tardiness because farmers hold back products for better prices. The volume of trade is fair for the season and at all points is greater than a year ago although the aggregate of bank clearings outside New York exceeds last year's by 2 per cent.

Iron grows stronger, the Thomas company having advanced its prices $1. A demand from Canada and from Mexico is felt, foreign prices being high. Bar iron is firm, blooms and billets feverish and rails are from $31.50 to $32. The orders already booked for 1890 amount to 750,000 tons or more. Copper is steady, tin a shade lower here at 20¼ and lead depressed by the expectation of a large Mexican supply. The coal trade is dull and the week's meetings have accomplished nothing beyond fixing upon three million tons as the output for November. Sales are generally below the schedule, stove being at $3.90.

The market for securities has been weak in spite of the relief in the ... market and ... very favorable reports regarding particular properties. The traffic arrangement between the Union Pacific and Chicago and Northwestern is thought to foreshadow an abandonment of the so called presidents ... lation and an attempt to secure more effective consolidation. The earnings are 10½ per cent larger than last year's for February thus far, but the Pennsylvania statement for September shows a very scanty increase and causes disappointment. On the whole the speculative markets are not promising and are judiciously let alone by the public but the outlook for all departments of legitimate business is more encouraging than it has been for a long time. The business failures during the last seven days number for the United States 188 and for Canada 37. For the corresponding week last year the figures were 222 failures in the United States and 33 in the Dominion of Canada.

Stock Market.

NEW YORK, October 25.—The stock market was more active to day and at the close all the active stocks were materially higher than they were last evening. The news of the day was almost entirely of a favorable character and the disposition was to regard the new traffic ... between the Union Pacific and Northwestern in a more favorable light. Trusts were again very prominent in the dealings and sugar was weak on the rumors of ... by the trust with a probable further fall in the price of the product together with new opposition. Later however sugar recovered on the report that no decision in the North River case would be handed down to day.

Warring Sa...ns.

SYDNEY, N. S., October 25.—Advices received from Apia under date of the 10th inst., state that a battle is reported on the Island of Savay between the forces of Malietoa and Tamasese. Three hundred were engaged on each side. Several were killed and a number wounded. Which party won the victory is not known.

WASHINGTON, October 25.—The cable dispatch from Sydney reporting an engagement between the forces of Malietoa and Tamasese was shown to the state department officials. They say that on the face of it the report was startling, but the importance of the report is modified by the relative importance of foreign interests in the different islands of Samoa. In any event the report, if true, demonstrated that Malietoa and Tamasese were not dwelling together in such harmonious relations as had been stated in recent accounts. The department had no information on the subject whatever. An examination of the correspondence and reports upon Samoan matters with accompanying maps showed that there were no American interests at all on the island of Savay and that those of England and Germany were inconsiderable compared to the island on which Apia is situated.

MANITOU SPRINGS.

Judge A. J. Williams and son, of Topeka, Kas., have been making a short visit to Manitou, stopping at the Cliff.

Mr. M. L. Reckner of [illegible] ... in perpetual [illegible].

A [illegible] ... Wednesday [illegible].

[illegible] ... of Manitou ... Nothing further than this can be said at present, as no definite plans have been made.

Found to be Correct.

For some days there have been rumors afloat to the effect that F. A. Cochran, city clerk and treasurer of Colorado City, was short in his accounts with the city. Last night a special meeting of the city council of Colorado City was held and the finance committee, which has been over hauling Mr. Cochran's accounts reported that the books showed that he had $6,751.31 of the city's money. This is exactly the sum that he reported as being in the treasury at the last meeting of the council. As city clerk and city treasurer Mr. Cochran was custodian of his own bond, and this bond having disappeared he presented a new bond last night to take the place of it, containing a clause stating that the old bond had been lost and this bond was a renewal. The council upon the advice of its attorney decided not to accept this, but to have Mr. Cochran at the next meeting of the council give a new bond dating from the present time. At a late meeting of the city council an order was passed requesting the city treasurer to keep the funds in the local bank of J. B. Wheeler & Co. Mr. Cochran stated last night to the council that if it would release him and his bondsmen from the responsibility of any loss that might occur, he would keep the funds wherever it might designate, but otherwise he would keep them where ever he thought them safest. He asked that an expert from the local bank be appointed to go over the books and report to the meeting Monday night, and that in addition to his new bond he would be prepared to show certificates of deposit for the funds on hand at that time.

A gentleman who has been closely connected with the affair stated to a Gazette representative last night that it was his opinion that the matter was purely political, and an attempt to throw such ignomy upon Mr. Cochran's name that he would be ousted from his position as [illegible] master. In fact an application has already been put in for the place. He states that after the report had been made to the council at the last meeting, persons began to count up what they thought should be in the treasury from the [illegible] paid in, without any other knowledge of the accounts. When the committee examined the accounts they were found to correspond to the report although one or two slight errors of bookkeeping were found which did not materially change the result.

The Denver, Texas and Ft. Worth railroad has completed its new freight depot in this city and it is a very neat and pretty structure. It is located just south of the old passenger depot and across the tracks, facing on Cucharras street. The building is 70 feet in length by 20 in width. The office is in front and is 20x15 feet and is newly furnished. The room for the storage of freight is in the rear. When the [illegible] gets its new passenger depot built it will be as well equipped for doing business in this city as any road entering it.

The Colorado Springs club will give a [illegible] tennis tournament this afternoon at half past two o'clock. The hour will have to be carefully [illegible] in beginning play owing to the shortness of the day in order that the tournament may be concluded before dark. All the members who desire to enter will therefore be on hand promptly. A meeting of the ladies' club will be held at two o'clock at which the presence of every member is especially desired by the president.

Attention is called to the fact that a very large number of voters in the city are not registered. One person who has been keeping track of affairs states that there are fully 900 voters in the city not registered, 400 of whom are in the Fourth ward. You must register in person according to the new law, or [illegible] one will be compelled to make an affidavit for you. Tuesday will be the next opportunity to register.

Rev. Henry Stanley Newman, of Leominster, England, probably the most eminent preacher in the Quaker church, is to preach at the First Methodist church to-morrow morning. He is stopping in Manitou.

The Fireman's band was out last night playing on the streets to advertise the ball next Thursday night. The boys make fine music now and there should be no lack of support from the citizens.

Among those registered at The Antlers yesterday was Prof. A. Agassiz, of Boston. He is returning from an inspection of the Midland road in company with a party of directors.

The Santa Fe has arranged to give a rate of 70 cents for the round trip to all who wish to attend the potato bake at Monument next Friday.

Remember that the subject of Mrs [illegible] ... is "Merrimac and Chicago."

The Rocky Mountain Baptist association decided to hold its next annual session in this city. It is hoped the new church will be ready by that time.

High [illegible] Resigns.

DENVER, October 25.—It is learned to night that A. B. Cavener, of Chicago, second grand assistant engineer of the Brotherhood, tendered his resignation to the convention to-day and it was accepted. It is now believed that he was the grand officer who was on trial before.

THE LATE GEN. HARTRANFT.

Soldier, Lawyer, State Auditor and Governor of Pennsylvania.

In the death of Gen. Hartranft, of Pennsylvania, the state's his star, and the veterans of the civil war have lost a strong man. John F. Hartranft was born in Montgomery county, Pa., in 1830. He was [illegible] from [illegible] in 1834. When he was 11 years old his parents removed to Morristown, where he attended school. He then went to Marshallsburg, and from there to Union [illegible] at Schenectady, N. Y., where he was graduated when he was 22 years old. At Union he studied engineering, and after leaving college entered the profession, but soon became deputy sheriff of [illegible], Pa. While in this position he [illegible] law, and was admitted to the bar in 1860.

Hartranft early took an interest in military affairs. Before he was a lawyer he had [illegible] the Norris City Rifles, [illegible] first a [illegible], then captain and finally [illegible].

J. F. HARTRANFT

When the three months' men were called out in the spring of '61 Col. Hartranft marched to the front at the head of this regiment, the Fourth Pennsylvania militia. On the day of the expiration of its term of service the battle of Bull Run was fought, and its colonel went through the fight as an aid to Gen. Franklin. Then he returned and organized the Fifty-first Pennsylvania infantry.

Col. Hartranft, from this time forward, [illegible] no [illegible] figure in the war. He took his [illegible] to North Carolina with Burnside, and was in at the final assault which carried the enemy's works at New Berne. [illegible] Reno's brigade, [illegible] of [illegible] Hartranft, helped to cover the retreat of Pope's army. The Fifty-first, with Hartranft, was in at Antietam. A part of the Ninth corps, the regiment was sent to Vicksburg. After the fall of that place, with the Ninth corps, it went to [illegible] to join Burnside, at Knoxville.

Next Hartranft was placed in charge of the Ninth corps [illegible] at Annapolis. The Fifty-first [illegible] whose time expired, [illegible] and Hartranft was soon at the head of a brigade containing [illegible] other regiments in Virginia. He was in at the [illegible] Bull Run, Chantilly, South Mountain, [illegible], Fredericksburg, Spottsylvania, Cold Harbor, Petersburg, and at the fall of [illegible].

He was made a brigadier general for gallantry at Spottsylvania, and breveted a major general at the close of the war. He retired from the service as the "Hero of Fort [illegible]" ... attack upon and capture of that fort ...

In 1865 Gen. Hartranft was elected auditor general of his state and re-elected in 1868. He was then elected governor, and has since been known as Governor Hartranft of Pennsylvania. When he retired from the office he was [illegible] postmaster by President Hayes; before his time expired was made collector, from which office he retired when President Cleveland was elected. He was major general in the National Guard of Pennsylvania at the time of his death.

It Got [illegible] Him So.

Old Sol Baker, a celebrated wild cat killer of the Keystone state, bragged around that he had killed a ton of cats. Some one doubted his story, and he sat down to figure. The total weight was only 1,750 pounds, including one very old cat which he scared to death, and he was so worried that he drowned himself. Had he been a coal dealer his ton would have been all right.—Detroit Free Press.

The Chief [illegible] Accident.

The accompanying cut gives a good idea of the great force with which the car sped down the incline to destruction in Cincinnati the other day when [illegible] by the breaking of the cable. There were only nine people in [illegible] killed. Had there been a crowd on board, as was often the case, the results could not but have been even more terrible.

Coupling Pins.

The loss of coupling pins is a mystery to railroad men. Where they all go to no one seems to be able to conjecture. Even in yards where the same cars that come in go out again additional coupling pins are called for constantly. At the West Albany railroad yard the Central-H [illegible] railroad uses a car load of new coupling pins a month. It is safe to say that 1,000,000 pins are supplied the West Albany yard in a year.—Albany Journal.
